Minnesota Children's Museum
Donor Privacy Statement

The museum maintains the highest level of respect for the privacy of donors. It is important to us that our donors understand how we collect and use personal information. The personal information collected from donors is used expressly for the purposes of processing payments and communicating with donors about museum activities as well as conducting fundraising operations of the museum.

Information that may be collected includes:

- Donor name
- Amount donated
- Address
- Contact information including phone, address, email as provided to the museum
- Donor comments

External payment processors allow donors to give electronically using a payment services account, a credit card, or other payment method. The museum works with service providers who follow privacy best practices.

Data may be used for these kinds of purposes:

- Distributing receipts and thanking donors for donations
- Informing donors about upcoming fundraising and other activities of the museum
- Internal analysis, such as research and surveys
- Record keeping
- Reporting to applicable government agencies as required by law
- Other purposes related to the fundraising operations

The information you provide will not be sold, shared, or used for purposes other than listed above.

Should you have any questions or concerns about Minnesota Children's Museum's Donor Privacy Statement, please contact our Development Department at 651-225-6039.
