Form 990, Part III, Line 4a, Program Service Accomplishments:

Program service statement continue: The Museum in St. Paul features 10 permanent exhibits including a four-story climber with spiral slide, laser maze, car wash, ball launchers, maker space, pretend town, and a gallery for toddlers and pre-schoolers. There's also a traveling exhibits gallery that features a new experience every few months.

Play is powerful and universal. It's an innate impulse in kids that helps them thrive and grow into healthy, happy adults.

Yet, pressures on play like screen time, adult-led academic activities, safety worries and busy family schedules continue to decrease the amount of time kids spend playing.

Through play, kids learn how to learn, build relationships with others, and develop life skills that set them up for future success. Equally important, when kids play, they have fun, which leads to joy and happiness. Play is not frivolous, it's essential.

That's why we work to inspire more play by providing resources for parents to support their child's playful learning.

Minnesota Children's Museum believes play is powerful and universal,

The President, even though a nonvoting member of the Committee, may be one of five committee members if so designated by the Board of Directors. The Executive Committee shall act only during intervals between meetings of the Board of Directors. During such intervals and subject at all times to the direction and control of the Board of Directors, the Executive Committee shall have and may exercise all of the authority and powers of the Board of Directors in the management of the business of the corporation subject to such limitations as the Board of Directors may impose from time to time. comparability studies in support of these reviews included MN Council of Nonprofits Salary & Benefits Survey, Total Compensation Survey (National Nonprofit Survey), and Association of Children's Museums & Association of Science Technology Centers Workforce Survey. O'Net, American Alliance of Museums, and EAA (national Executive Salary Survey) are also used. The process and determination is documented in the personnel file.

The process of determining compensation for the Director of Finance & Technology is the same as the top management official except that it is approved by the President rather than the Executive Committee. The compensation comparability study is completed every other year, but compensation is reviewed annually during the merit process.
